

I thought, "Finally, a channel that gives me what I want exactly when I need it!" You can't find a radio station that gives you the service and information that XM Instant Traffic & Weather provides. I feel that the NAB is just a bunch of radio and TV station owners that are upset that XM came up with this brilliant idea and that they didn't. If I am paying for this service, then I am entitled to get what I want!